

Protect your hardware & software with an anti-virus package

Wearing a condom can help prevent the transmission of sexually transmitted infections including HIV

Produced by Health Promotion, part of the

Gloucestershire Public Health Network

Further copies available from Health Promotion Resource 01452 429363